

University of Leicester

THE Leicester
Award

This is to certify that

Aleksander Nitka

Has successfully completed the
Leicester Award for Employability: Community Engagement (Peer Assisted Learning)

The Peer Assisted Learning Award is a programme in which students undertake leadership activities to aid the learning of fellow students. The course involves supporting a group of peers in an academic setting, training workshops on facilitation and resource development and three reflective assignments including an oral presentation.

Bob Athwal
Director of Student Experience

Professor Sir Robert Burgess
Vice-Chancellor

MAKE THE
MOST OF

YOU

Brought to you by your Career Development Service